

Taste & See!

*Looking for a deeper understanding of theology?
Wanting to know more about your Catholic faith?*

The Franciscan School of Theology offers Master degrees with both a ministerial and academic focus. In addition, students can register for courses without entering a degree program.

In the 2011-2012 academic year, FST is offering weekday and evening graduate level theology courses at a greatly reduced introductory tuition for new students. A variety of courses in liturgy, theology, scripture, and Franciscan spirituality are available.

The Details

Tuition and Fees (for 2010-2011)

Application Fee	$ 40
Taste & See Tuition for one course	$ 750 (regular tuition: $2055)
Comprehensive Student Fee	$ 80

(Books and supplies are not included)

(Tuition and fees are subject to change without notice)

Application

Prospective students apply as Special Students. To find the application follow this link: http://www.fst.edu/apply/genreq_apply.html. Accepted students are invited to participate in the fall orientation on August 29, 2011 to meet their academic advisor and to choose and register for their course. Special Students may take one course per semester for the Taste & See tuition (with a lifetime total of two courses at this tuition). Taste & See students may also register for a second course each semester at the regular tuition.

If you have considered studying theology at the graduate level, now is the time to begin!
